New England Construction & The Peregrine Group Announce The Completion Of 1300 Highland Office Condominiums

Providence, RI (August 9, 2004): New England Construction completed its' latest project in the Highland Corporate Park located in Cumberland, RI. The new office building, totaling 42,767 Square Feet, was designed to take advantage of historical low interest rates and provide small business owners an opportunity to own their office space instead of leasing.
